

“1787: We the People” Cast and Songs

In effect Madison, Hamilton, Washington and Eliza could be considered leads, although the featured songs are spread out, no one person, even Madison, carrying them.

The others could be considered secondary leads.

James Madison: 2 featured solos: *Books, Who Are We?

1 duet with Benjamin Franklin: Dawning of the Day
numerous other leads in songs, including one barbershop sequence

George Washington: 2 featured solos: Soldiers Came to Congress, Who are we?
numerous other songs with others

Alexander Hamilton: 2 featured solos: *More like the Brits, Who Are We?

3 duets with Eliza Hamilton numerous other songs with others including one barbershop number

Eliza Hamilton: 3 duets with Hamilton

Dolley Madison: 1 featured solo--part of a larger song, *Who Are We?

Molly Pitcher: 2 featured solos: *Water from Well, Love be Found

Benjamin Franklin: 1 duet with Madison, *Dawning of the Day

Charles Pinckney, SC---1 featured solo, *America the Miracle

John Langdon, NH-----1 featured comic song, *Have I Missed Anything?

Edmund Randolph, VA---1 featured comic solo--*A Politician

Washington's Slave Jackson---1 featured solo--*3/5's a Man

John Lansing, Robert Yates, NY--1 comic duet--*He's Gone

Edmund Randolph, George Read, John Dickinson,

Alexander Hamilton, James Madison---one featured barbershop #

We Met Last Summer in Annapolis

Many of the rest in broad choruses, mostly Convention attendees--

Shays Rebellion

Will You Attend?

Younger Lions, Older Patriots

Grumbletonians

America the Miracle

Sherman's Compromise

Have I Missed Anything?

We will be a Country

Ratification

Finale: Americans Are We